The 1957 BELMONTIAN is yours. You made it; we preserved it through word and picture.

CLASS HISTORY

It was just four short years ago when we, now Seniors, launched ourselves into high school. There were forty-five of us and we were as green as the greenest Freshmen. We chose Miss Christeen Hankins as our sponsor for that year, and she was very nice to us, indeed. The Freshman class officers were: Harold Ginn, President; Evonne Bennett, Vice President; Marie Pardue, Secretary; Linda Tiffin, Treasurer; and Jerry Stephens, Reporter. We selected Memphis, Tennessee for our class trip, and everyone had a wonderful time.

We began our Sophomore year in 1954. Our sponsor was Mr. Clyne Harris, who was a very cooperative leader. The officers during that year were: Milton Parker, President; Harold Ginn, Vice President; Evonne Bennett, Secretary-Treasurer; and Joyce Pardue, Reporter. Our social life consisted of a class trip to Tishomingo State Park for a chicken fry, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed himself.

The Junior year began with a boom! As our sponsors, we chose Mr. and Mrs. Orville Helton, who helped us share our troubles in a happy way and were very good to us. Our class officers were: Dolan Taylor, President; Margaret Yarber, Vice President; Bobby Woods, Secretary-Treasurer; and Joyce Pardue, Reporter. During our Junior year, we presented our play, "Good Glory", which was very successful. Later that year, we made our class trip to Nashville, Tennessee, and it was enjoyed by all. Our next step was to entertain the Seniors. We entertained them with a formal banquet at Tishomingo State Park, and everyone had a wonderful time.

Our Senior year began July 23, 1956. We chose for our sponsor Mr. Donald Johnson, who has been very nice to us in every way. To guide us through our last year, we selected as our class officers: Jerry Bostick, President; Joyce Pardue, Vice President; Linda Tiffin, Secretary-Treasurer; and Jerry Stephens, Reporter. We began our social life with a swimming party and chicken fry at Tishomingo State Park, and it was a very enjoyable time for all.

In many ways our last year of high school is a sad one, because we realize that each will soon take his place in life. We are looking forward with pleasure to our Senior Play, the Junior-Senior Banquet, our class trip, and graduation exercises.

In conclusion, allow us to say that, as Seniors of '57, though we have sorely tried the patience of our teachers, we leave them with a heart full of love and the kindest wishes that the past is but a prophecy of the much good they will accomplish for the Senior classes in the future of Belmont High School.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, Seniors of Belmont High School, County of Tishomingo, State of Mississippi, being of different years of ages, and of sound and disposing mind, make this, our last will and testament. We give, and bequeath all our estate and property, real and personal, as follows:

- I, Carol Clark, leave my ability to get married to anyone who can use it.
- I, Myrtle Credille, leave my ability to pester Mrs. Phillips to anyone who can do it without getting caught.
- I, Kellus Sparks, leave, I hope, my musical hair pin with Harold Segars.
- I, O. C. Searcy, leave my speed in typing to Charles Ray Searcy.
- I, Bobby Woods, leave my fast eating to Billy Messer.
- I, Eloise Credille, leave my in-ability to listen in American Government to anyone who is stupid enough to take it.
- I, Joyce Pardue, leave my ability to go Spark (s) ing to Betty Lou Morris.
- I, Jerry Bostick, leave, with pleasure.
- I, Harold Ginn, leave one pack of Camels to all the cigarette bums.
- I, Ima Jeane Duncan, leave my aches, but not my "Payne", to all the Juniors.
- I, Mary Lee Montgomery, leave to Nancy Griffin my ability to read shorthand to the Juniors --she can have the job next year.
- I, John Denson, leave to Eldon Taylor my ability to get married, but not to my girl.
- I, Darcy Credille, leave my ability to go steady to anyone in the Junior class who can stand it.
- I, Jerry Stephens, leave my paper wad shooting to Dean Deaton.
- I, Evonne Bennett, leave my ability to date the New Site boys to Dot Crowe.
- I, Linda Tiffin, leave my good times in high school to anyone who would like them.
- I, Dolan Taylor, leave all of the pretty girls to Floyd Paden.
- I, Nellee Henley, leave my ability to fall in love to anyone who is crazy enough to try it.
- I, Ellen Credille, leave all my good qualities--except my "Segars", to the Juniors.
- I, Margaret Yarber, just leave, I hope.
- I, A. B. Campbell, leave my ability to flirt with Joanne Bennett to Lee Edgar Brown.
- I, Charlene Cox, leave the "Highways" to take to the "Rhodes".
- I, Clytee Smith, leave my ability to catch a lifeguard to no one--I want him myself.
- I, Virginia (Red) Moore, leave my "Swindley" self to Jolene Greene.
- I, Clyde Ellis Moore, leave my ability to aggravate teachers and students to Charles William Dickinson.
- I, Peggy Kennedy, gladly leave Mr. Helton to all the Juniors of Belmont High School.
- I, Eugene Brown, leave my slingshot, rubber band, and stack of comic books to Floyd Paden.
- I, Barbara Jones, leave my ability to date all boys to Elois Carnes.
- I, Billy Roy Harris, leave my good looks to Conrad Allen.
